MID-YEAR SESSION OF THE OLD EASTERN MISSIONARY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

Meeting with the Cornerstone Baptist Church, Williamston, N. C., Rev. T. T. Shivers, Minister, May 16, 1950.

The Morning Session opened with the Prayer Band of Williamston conducting Praise Service. After this brief service the association opened properly at 11:00 o'clock with devotionals being conducted by Revs. O. J. Rooks and J. H. Knox. "What a Friend We Have In Jesus" was sung. Rev. Rooks read Romans 12th Chapter. Rev. Knox led in prayer. "My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less" was led by Rev. Rooks. The Rev. J. E. James, Vice-Moderator, presented the morning program and asked the host minister to extend words of welcome, which he did in a very fine way and made all of us feel very much welcome. The Rev. J. E. Tillette accepted the welcome on the part of the association.

After remarks by the Moderator, the roll was called and fees collected to the amount of $122.75. Here the Reverend C. R. Edwards, was presented for the morning message. Rev. J. H. Knox preceded the sermon with, "The Lord Will Make a Way Somehow." The Rev. Edwards selected as his text Matt. 10:32-33. The minister used as a subject, "Back Bone In Religion." The minister dealt very minutely with the Master's charge to those first disciples and witnesses in the early church. He pleaded for stability in our Christian experience and faith. He would have us know to confess Christ in word and deed is what He wants of us. The speaker challenged his hearers to stand by the things that be. "We don't need a new Bible; we don't need a new Saviour," said the speaker. He pleaded for abiding faith in the Book and the Man, Christ. The message was inspirational and much enjoyed by all present. Rev. F. K. Leathers led in prayer, following the sermon. Rev. Knox led in singing, "I Must See Jesus."

Revs. T. V. Foster and C. P. Ivey were asked to lift the offering. The amount collected was $15.00.

Afternoon Session—3:10

Rev. T. R. Vines led in singing, "Let Jesus Lead You," then read Matt. 7:1-7. Rev. Leroy Perkins led in prayer, followed by a selection led by Rev. Vines. Minutes for the morning session were read and adopted by motion. The roll of churches was called. Rev. R. W. Underwood was presented to speak of the Eastern District Convention. At this point the Executive Board presented a resolution which would, in effect, repeal the change made at the 1949 Session in the time of the Annual Meetings of the Association. This resolution was adopted by the association, which leaves the Annual Sessions to meet as in the past, lasting through Sunday.

In the absence of Rev. O. L. Sherrill, who was to bring the Inspirational message, Mr. Otis Hairston, Editor of our Baptist Informer, was presented for this message. The speaker spoke on the economic condition of our people and challenged the church to the task of liberation. The speaker pleaded for Christian Living and a Spiritual Revival in our churches. The minister gave us a mind-searching message in a very unassuming manner that must have caused his audience to think. It was a very fine message. A motion prevailed to send the Moderator to the National Convention, meeting in Philadelphia in September, and that his expense would be taken care of to the amount of Fifty Dollars.

Brother Willie A. Cotton, Licensed Minister, was admitted into the fellowship of the association, paying One Dollar.

The amount collected in this session for the State Work, $81.34. Motion prevailed to thank the pastor, host church and the town of Williamston for the very fine entertainment of the association during this session.

The minister would have us know that spiritual blindness can only be healed by the gospel.

MODERATOR'S ANNUAL ADDRESS

Pastors, Ministers, Delegates, Friends, and Visitors — Providence has again provided with these grand privileges to greet each other as faithful stewards of our Heavenly Father —to greet each other on the 85th Annual Setting of this grand old body, Old Eastern Missionary Baptist Association in North Carolina.

As we stand upon the threshold of time gazing into the future amid a world of turmoils and upheavals being alarmed by the threat and rumors of a possible Third World War, wherein United States of America together with other members of the United Nations organization are calling to arms their sons for the purpose of securing and protecting their interests.

May we pray for guidance of those within whose hands rests the destinies of our nations or peoples for a glorious and victorious future. May I admonish you in words of the Prophet Isaiah to "never fear" with true and implicit trust in the almighty—fear not for I am with thee, I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west.

1. The Exhortation

A. Fear not anxieties

The Prophet charges Israel not to fear, nor become discouraged but to keep the faith so may we keep the faith and be courageous in our duties and responsibilities. May we look upon the fields that are white and laden and ready to be housed but laborers are few.

May we therefore pray to God for laborers to be sent into the vineyard.

B. Fear not want

All our needs are supplied in God for He knows all of our needs before asking Him. Ask and it shall be given, seek and ye shall find, knock and it shall be opened unto you—for all things belong to Him; cattle upon a thousand hills, the rubies and diamonds, silver and gold may be ours, if we fear not.

C. Fear not enemies

We have no need to fear our adversaries, vengeance is the Lord's and He will repay—call upon God and He will deliver thee in time of trouble. He is our refuge and underneath us in His everlasting arms. He fought the battle of Gideon's army.

D. Fear not duties

Jesus has directed us to go into His vineyard and work. And whatsoever is right He will repay. It behooves us to bestir ourselves by doing our individual and Christian duties. God's orders to the church as He did Israel is to bring all our tithes into His storehouse and prue him herewith sayeth the Lord of Host, if I will not open the windows of heaven and pour you out blessings there shall not be room enough to receive them.

E. Fear not perils

We observe that we are living in perilous times, we are charged not to fear, as true believers. In journeying often in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren. Fear not. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword. As it is written—for thy sake we are killed all day long: We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us. Heighth nor depth shall not be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ, Jesus, our Lord.

F. Fear not death

There is no death to him which is in Christ Jesus. He died that in Him we might live. He extracted the sting from death and took victory from the grave and made up a dying bed as soft as donning pillow there, where the Saints of God shall rest his dying head.

2. The Promise.

God's promise cannot fail. His promise to His disciples—let not your heart be troubled. Ye believe in God, believe also in Me. In my Father's house are many mansions: If it were not so, I would not have told you. I go to prepare a place for you—and if I go and prepare a place for you I will come again, and receive you unto Myself that where I am, there ye may be also. I will aid thee in sickness, I will comfort thee when lonely, I will guide thee when in the darkness, and I will protect thee from hurts, harms and dangers. So to the auxiliaries of this grand old body of the old Eastern Association—why should we fear with this assurance.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That we continue to support the unified program of the General Baptist State Convention and the National Baptist Convention, Incorporated, in America.

2. That we still give more time as ministers and churches of this association to ministerial and Christian training, and that institutes be sponsored by the association.

3. That we go on record by asking the pastors of the churches of this association to give their wholehearted support to see to it that the churches keep up their support to the Union Meetings and other Auxiliaries of this body.
